

LICENSED LAY WORSHIP LEADERS

The Ottawa Presbytery
of
The United Church of Canada

FEBRUARY 2017

To all clergy, secretaries, Official Board/Council chairs, supply and worship committee chairs and anyone who arranges pulpit supply:

This booklet is designed to inform you about the rich resource of Licensed Lay Worship Leaders in the Ottawa Presbytery. It provides basic information (The Manual 2013, The United Church of Canada references in brackets) and the names, phone numbers and email addresses of the Licensed Lay Worship Leaders, with a short description provided by the Worship Leader.

A Lay Worship Leaders licence is for providing occasional worship leadership and preaching within the bounds of Ottawa presbytery when the regular designated minister is unable to do so in a pastoral charge. Licensed lay worship leaders can provide Sunday worship services and other special services on request with the permission of incumbent clergy or the pastoral supervisor in a pastoral charge. The licence does not include presiding at Communion or marriages.

Who are the Licensed Lay Worship Leaders?

Licensed Lay Worship Leaders are members of the laity who feel a call to preaching and worship leadership,

- * are members in good standing in a UCC congregation,
- * have been recommended by a Session, or Official Board,
- * have successfully completed a course of study following guidelines set by General Council,
- * are licensed by their Presbytery.

Licensed Lay Worship Leaders are contacted directly by those responsible for arranging the worship services of a Pastoral Charge

- * Normally one Licensed Lay Worship Leader should be engaged for no more than two weeks in a row. There are many LLWL looking for an opportunity to serve. If it is desired to engage one LLWL for an extended period, this should be reviewed with the LLWL and Pastoral Relations Ministry Teams of Ottawa Presbytery.

Compensation

Ottawa Presbytery has set the following minimum standards for the compensation of Licensed Lay Worship Leaders:

Licensed Lay Worship Leaders are to be compensated as follows:

- For single point charges – a minimum of $125.00 plus kilometres travelled at the rate established by the General Council Salary guidelines, presently 41 cents per kilometre, and
- For multiple-point charges – a minimum of $150.00 plus kilometres travelled at the rate established by the General Council Salary guidelines, presently 41 cents per kilometre.

(This is a minimum rate and churches may establish higher rates.)

The Course of Education and Continuing Education

The LLWL course involves at least two years of study and includes theology and church history, Hebrew and Christian scriptures, preaching, and worship and pastoral skills related to worship leadership. It includes a reading list and seminars.

Licensed Lay Worship Leaders continue to polish their skills and develop their theology through pulpit supply, reading, and continuing education events.

Role of Presbytery

Those who are recommended and who have completed the course are examined by the Presbytery ministry team. Enquiry is also made by the ministry team as to the ability, character and doctrine of the applicant. Those who meet the criteria are recommended to the Presbytery for licensing.

A licence is renewable annually. A Licensed Lay Worship Leader may change pastoral charges within the same Presbytery. The licence granted by one Presbytery is not, however, valid if the licence holder moves to a different Presbytery. The Licensed Lay Worship Leader shall function under the direction of Presbytery.

Licensed Lay Worship Leaders Ministry Team

The ministry team is responsible for establishing the education and examination criteria, and for developing the policy within which Licensed Lay Worship Leaders are expected to function. Comments on Licensed Lay Worship Leaders' performance should be addressed to the ministry team because they provide supervision and accountability. All of the above shall be approved by the Presbytery. The ministry team maintains a list of Licensed Lay Worship Leaders and reports annually to the Presbytery.

Chair:	Marni Hunt Stephens
Members:	Georgina Fitzgerald
	Joan Heyland
	Rev. Eric Lukacs
	Robert Nelson

How do I become a Licensed Lay Worship Leader?

An interested person applies through the Session, or Official Board of their local church. The Session then applies in writing for that person to the Licensed Lay Worship Leaders Ministry Team who maintains a waiting list for the next course. Information can be obtained through the Presbytery Office at (613) 224-5318.

	I am an Office Administrator at a high school during the week; that could be part of the reason I find peace in studying the Word of God. I have led worship at several churches and have met some wonderful people along the way. My faith journey has led me to a desire to study the Word and I am enveloped in a sense of peace and joy when creating in worship. Worship gives me a chance to connect with God on a deeper level and I enjoy sharing the stories of our ancestors in an atmosphere of acceptance, inclusion, love, a touch of humour, and all in a way that relates to life today. My home church is First United Church .
Joanne Braaksma (Licensed 2015)	(613) 838-2679	joannebraaksma@hotmail.com
	Being a retired teacher, I was looking for a mental challenge and I found it by taking the LLWL course. I thoroughly enjoyed learning more about the Bible, religion, and how the United Church works. My home church is St. Paul's United in Richmond ON. Currently, I sing in the choir, am president of the UCW, secretary for the Richmond Food Bank which works out of St. Paul's. God works in mysterious ways and I am so glad He has taken me on this journey. Have car will travel and preach!
Christine Burbridge (Licensed 2016)	(613) 232-6509	burbridges@rogers.com
	I was born and grew up in Ottawa, and have been an active member of Glebe-St. James United Church for over 20 years. As a member of our Worship Committee for several years, I value well-planned worship services and how they are received by the congregation. I feel it is important to balance continuity and innovation in worship in order for the service to be meaningful for all. As a trained labyrinth facilitator, I am interested in contemplative practices and lead a monthly labyrinth walk at GSJ. I also lead an annual quilting retreat each fall for GSJ.
David Clemis (Licensed 2009)	(613) 482-1490	davidclemis@homemail.com
	Retired member of Canadian Forces and Government of Canada. Has been involved in Christian Education, Worship and Sunday School. Loves to tell stories and engage congregation. Very much interested in use of multimedia in worship. Presbytery rep. of Orleans United . Member of Presbytery and Conference Communication and Pastoral Relations.

I grew up across Canada! Literally. Born in Manitoba I have lived in Alberta, PEI, and Ontario. Moving and traveling with my family has been a real pleasure and opened my eyes to the bountiful blessings of what it means to be Canadian. My Husband and I, along with our children, attend Stittsville United Church where I have lead worship on many occasions. My career in operational logistics has led me to the Heart and Stroke Foundation and the University of Calgary's Faculty of Medicine. Throughout my faith journey I have developed a great sense of JOY in preparing and leading worship. The Lay Worship Leader course has been a wonderful first step in fulfilling God's call for me.

Currently Health Canada. Mother and grandmother. Graduated from Seaway Valley first Lay Preacher class '92. Served In Seaway Valley and Ottawa Presbytery rural and city congregations: I love both Children's Time and preaching for adults. Since '94 Presbytery lay representative for Glebe-St. James United. Member of Church-in-Society Presbytery Committee. Interests in aboriginal issues and bioethics, science & music.

Marni Hunt Stephens (Licensed 2004)	(613) 484-8121	marnihs@rogers.com
	Born and raised on military bases, settled at Orleans United Church since 1985, because it feels like home. Called to share faith and drama after teaching Sunday School, leading youth groups, singing in choirs, being a lay reader, and discovering the wonder of being open to the Holy Spirit.
Dori Jensen (Licensed 1999)	(613) 831-8267	djensen@jssinc.ca
	I am an active member of Britannia United Church and am involved there in Pastoral care and on worship committee. I enjoy planning and leading worship services and having an opportunity to share, with others along life's journey, the Good News of the Risen Christ.
George Kitchen	(613) 822-8267 or (343) 777-1878	rumbleseat.oes@gmail.com
	Member South Gloucester United . Church work includes outreach, stewardship, adult education, Sunday School, pastoral care. Theology courses St. Paul University and Queens. Member of the Spiritual Care team at ROH. Economist Federal Government.
Joanne Kosmack (Licensed 2012)	(819) 595-9747 or (819) 224-2150	kosmackj@hotmail.com
	I am a retired high school teacher interested in quilting and serving my church in West Quebec. I am a member of Chelsea United Church , in Chelsea, QC. My faith is based on hope, an expectation that Christ indeed lived and died for us and what our God has declared and promised is indeed true. With the help of the Holy Spirit, I live my life with this assuredness.

Here am I, Lord! My journey of spiritual discernment led me to explore licenced lay worship leadership. I find real enjoyment in sharing the simple truth of scripture stories with children and youth. I believe what creates meaningful worship experiences for young people isn't so different from what makes meaningful worship for everyone! I am a member of Glebe-St. James United and I feel blessed to be a part of such an open and caring church family.

Raised in the UK in Anglican and Presbyterian churches. Member of UCC since 1967. Choir member since her teens, married to organist, Paul. UCW member 40 years. Past Chair Ottawa Presbytery, member of Rothwell UC. Loves to "Weave the lectionary scriptures into a relevant message for today", combining praise and prayer to create uplifting worship. Hobbies - grandmother, gardener, handbells, crafts. Available to Seaway Valley Presbytery churches.

Heather McGrath

Home church: Orleans United where she gets to experience great preaching. Chair of Council. Works part time as a nurse which is her passion. "No answers. Still searching. Sermons should be stimulating, relaxed and in some sense fun. Who can keep their mind on a subject for more than 2 minutes, unless it meets a present need? God speaks through the scriptures. The LLWL should open the door for the scriptures to speak to the congregation."

Bridget Meszaros

Member of North Gower United Church. I am a soft spoken woman but when I feel called to speak, another spirit-filled voice is projected. I am a seeker of God's wisdom and kingdom. I feel that we can do this through the study of scripture, prayer and through each other. My background is in small rural churches.

Carla Miner
(Licensed 2009)

Member of St. Paul's United Church in Carp. A lifelong "career" of teaching Sunday School, combined with delight in Bible studies, has led to this Lay Worship Leader program, which has reaffirmed what joy there is in "telling the good news". Her other career as a scientist, working in high-tech full-time (at the moment anyway!), means that she is not usually available on short notice, but it also brings an interesting perspective on such topics as the relationship between science and religion. Ask about her trip to the Holy Land...

Ruth Mooney

Present member of First United, former member of Southminster and Knox United churches. Led by the spirit to share and express my faith to others, and a strong desire to be involved in the eternal. I receive great satisfaction in preparing and leading services; I enjoy researching the Bible texts and other commentaries and applying them to life today.

I am blessed to have taken this wonderful step in my faith journey. It has been a two year adventure God has taken me on and I am interested to see where God takes me next. I have a growing interest and passion in drama and I am looking to take the step and challenge myself to bring that into worship when appropriate. All in God's timing! My family (wife and three daughters) and I attend Orleans United Church and I am also very fortunate to attend Bethany United Church and be a part of that wonderful faith community as well. I would be honoured to assist with worship anywhere in the Ottawa area.

Our God is an awesome God and leading worship provides me with an opportunity to praise, and preach God's Word as well as to share God's everlasting love with everyone I meet. Being Called by God to preach the Good News of the Bible and to share how God's love impacts and daily renews our lives. I offer my gift of music and song to the worship services; I have been a member of Carsonby United Church for 18 years and have had involvement in the Ottawa Presbytery as Presbytery Secretary, Pres, rep.; steward; choir member of Carsonby United Church. Member of Presbytery and Pastoral Relations. Becoming a Lay Worship Leader has continued to strengthen my life, with God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit.

Don Reynolds

Carol Scott is a member of Emmanuel United Church where she is part of the Worship Committee and other related groups. She believes that within community worship, our faith practices can evolve and grow stronger for the good of all creation. As a facilitator for the UCC Comprehensive Review, she had the opportunity to interview several congregations within Ottawa and across Canada, and looks forward to the opportunity to lead worship in various Ottawa Presbytery congregations. Carol finds poetry writing is her natural form of expressing the deep Mystery that pervades all of life.
